

The public has never requested that the FCC convert from analog to digital. HDTV was proposed by a TV set maker to force the public to buy NEW TV sets or a converter box. I can not afford to buy a new HDTV. The FCC should allow more time for the General Public to purchase new TV sets. This is the fair thing to do. Give broadcasters and the public until 2010.